

Cali Tucker Goes Viral on Instagram performing Luke Combs' 'Ain't No Love in Oklahoma' — Riding a Mythical Stallion

Country singer Cali Tucker has once again captured the internet's attention with an Instagram video that is getting significant attention

NASHVILLE, TN, UNITED STATES, April 1, 2026 /EINPresswire.com/ -- Country singer Cali Tucker is drawing widespread attention on Instagram after posting a video that has surpassed 800,000 views. The clip shows Tucker performing Luke Combs' "Ain't No Love in Oklahoma" while seated atop a performer on stilts dressed as a large, mythical horse figure.

The unusual staging and high-energy delivery prompted rapid engagement across the platform, with viewers saving, sharing, and commenting on the post. Reactions have ranged from comparisons to major pop and country performers such as Beyonce, Miley Cyrus, and Carrie Underwood to references to fantasy creatures from films such as The Dark Crystal and Return to Oz. The full video is available at the end of this article.

"I love mythical creatures and I love surprising you guys," Tucker said. "Music is supposed to be fun, live shows are supposed to be entertaining and Country music... I'm just bringing spice, babe!"

The video adds to Tucker's growing momentum as she continues carving out her own lane in the country music world, blending powerhouse vocals with bold, theatrical creativity. With new music and upcoming appearances on the horizon, this latest viral spark is only fueling
