At CommLab India, we've always focused on helping organizations move from fragmented training efforts to scalable learning systems”

Dr. RK Prasad, CEO & Co-Founder of CommLab India

For over 25 years, CommLab India has been empowering learning teams to transform complex training into engaging, role-specific learning experiences. Today, the company supports more than 90 high-performing U.S.-based L&D teams with custom corporate eLearning solutions.

Organizations today face ongoing training needs due to sales enablement, compliance requirements, process changes, and system rollouts, often across multiple regions and languages. In such environments, learning is no longer a one-time initiative but a recurring operational requirement.

CommLab India addresses this reality by operating as a managed learning production and capacity partner, helping enterprises run learning operations at scale.

“At CommLab India, we’ve always focused on helping organizations move from fragmented training efforts to scalable learning systems,” said Dr. RK Prasad, CEO and Co-Founder, CommLab India. CommLab India takes ownership of the speed, consistency, and reliability of learning execution, ensuring that training keeps pace with evolving business demands without overwhelming internal teams.

The company’s approach blends human-centered instructional design with AI-enabled development, enabling clients to meet learning goals within demanding timelines and across global teams.

Leveraging the latest custom eLearning software, including authoring tools and GenAI technologies, CommLab India helps organizations execute large or complex training initiatives efficiently. When enterprise L&D teams need execution at scale and speed, CommLab India brings the processes, standards, and discipline needed to deliver with consistency – backed by 25 years of experience in corporate training.

CommLab India works extensively with organizations in Health and Pharma, Manufacturing, Logistics, and Financial Services, where training demands are often recurring, complex, regulated, and global in nature. Its delivery model is built for scale, featuring dedicated project teams, seamless collaboration with subject matter experts, and efficient execution frameworks.

This recognition by Training Industry reinforces CommLab India’s position as a trusted partner for enterprises seeking scalable, high-quality custom eLearning solutions delivered with speed, consistency, and measurable impact.
