

Popcorn for the People Returns to Warren Hills for Autism Acceptance

Free April 16 event at Warren Hills High School, NJ, features Popcorn for the People speaking on neurodiverse employment for Autism Acceptance Month.

WASHINGTON, NJ, UNITED STATES, April 1, 2026 /EINPresswire.com/ -- Popcorn for the People, a leader in neurodiverse employment, will speak at Warren Hills High School Auditorium, at 6 p.m., on April 16, 2026. Admission is free and registration is available at arcwarren.org/register

This program is hosted by event sponsor Greenwich Autism Alliance Foundation, The Arc of Warren County, Abilities of Northwest Jersey, Inc., and Warren Hills High School.

Popcorn for the People was established in 2014 as a social enterprise model dedicated to creating meaningful and lasting jobs for adults with autism and developmental disabilities. The organization creates “Popportunity” with a vision that ensures all adults and developmental disabilities can experience the joy of accomplishment that comes from steady employment. Tiffany and John Welch from Popcorn for the People will share their experiences creating, supporting and working in a neurodiverse workforce.

The values of the organization include fair wages, career advancement opportunities and promoting respect and equality. Popcorn will also be available for attendees!

“I have seen Popcorn for the People present before and I am so pleased that to be able to sponsor this event with The Arc of Warren County and Abilities of Northwest Jersey and bring them to the Warren Hills community,” says Kelly Milazzo, President of The Greenwich Autism Alliance Foundation. “It is such a unique opportunity that you will not want to miss.”

This event will be emceed by MaryLouise Rowlin, Director of Special Education at Warren Hills High School. Additional remarks will be made by Kelly Milazzo, John Whitehead, CEO of The Arc of Warren County and Cindy Wildermuth of Abilities of Northwest Jersey, Inc.

Though this opportunity is free and open to the public, attendees will have an option to donate to The Arc of Warren County and Abilities of Northwest Jersey, Inc. when they register.
