

From Matador to Missionary Explores a Life Shaped by Faith, Israel, and the Search for Truth

Author Salvatore Miliziano shares a deeply personal story of faith, spiritual awakening, and a life-changing journey to Israel.

NEW YORK CITY, NY, UNITED STATES, April 1, 2026 /EINPresswire.com/ -- A powerful new memoir is inviting readers into a deeply personal journey of faith, discovery, and spiritual purpose. In From Matador to Missionary: A Life's Journey toward Seeking the Truth, Salvatore Miliziano recounts the path that led him from a lifelong devotion to Jesus Christ to a profound calling connected to Israel and Messianic ministry.

Miliziano's book offers a heartfelt account of a man whose desire to understand the foundations of his faith remained constant from childhood into later life. Having become a Christian at the age of eleven, he spent decades carrying a deep longing to visit the land where Christianity began. That long-held dream was fulfilled when, at the age of seventy, he traveled to Israel, an experience that became the turning point of his spiritual journey.

More than a memoir, the book presents a testimony of conviction, reverence, and transformation. Miliziano describes how his time in Israel awakened in him a profound love for the land and for the Jewish people. He writes of seeing the biblical story with renewed clarity and of embracing what he views as a sacred connection to God's chosen people. His reflections are rooted in the belief that the faith of Abraham, and the covenant attached to it, continue to shape the spiritual legacy of Israel and the message carried into the world through the Torah, the Tanakh, and the Brit Hadashah, or the New Testament.

The inspiration for writing the book came unexpectedly. Miliziano never intended to become an author, but his visit to Israel stirred in him a sense of responsibility to share the truth he felt had been revealed through that experience. His journey ultimately led to his ordination in July 2022 through the Assemblies of God as an Emissary in Messianic Ministry, marking a new chapter in a life devoted to service and faith.

Readers interested in Christian testimony, spiritual growth, biblical history, and the relationship between Christianity and Israel will find the book especially meaningful. It speaks to those seeking purpose, clarity, and a deeper understanding of how faith can evolve across a lifetime. Miliziano's story also serves as a reminder that it is never too late for a new calling to emerge.
