

Prayed Up Offers Daily Guidance for Strengthening Faith Through Prayer and Scripture

In Prayed Up, Katrina Bills provides a practical and uplifting resource designed to inspire spiritual growth and deepen one's connection with God.

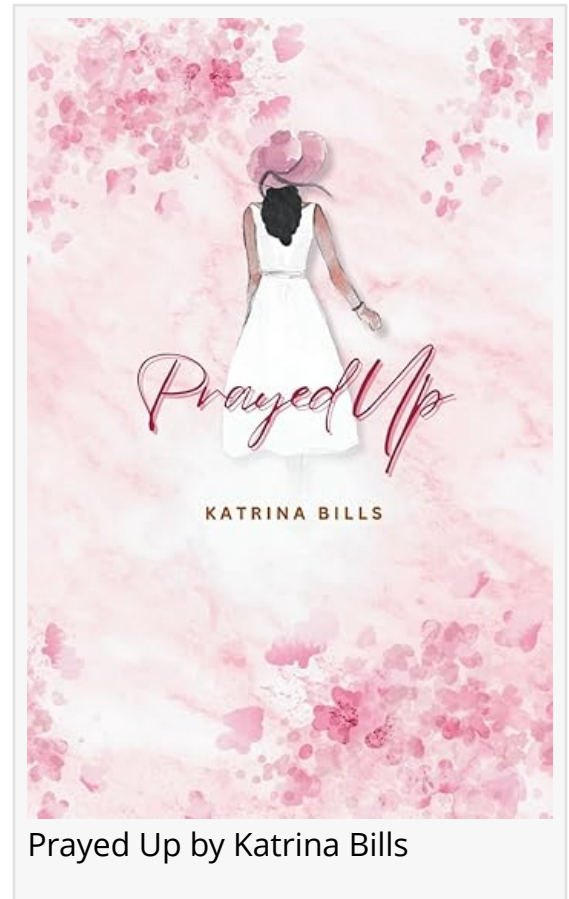

NEW YORK CITY, NY, UNITED STATES, April 1, 2026 /EINPresswire.com/ -- In Prayed Up, Katrina Bills, CEO and Founder of KB Writes Publishing Company, delivers a powerful and accessible guide for individuals seeking to strengthen their faith through daily prayer and scripture. Born in Chicago, Bills brings both personal insight and professional experience into this devotional prayer book, offering readers a meaningful way to navigate life's challenges with clarity, purpose, and renewed belief.

At its core, Prayed Up serves as a daily guide to spiritual enrichment, providing readers with a collection of prayers and scripture passages tailored to a variety of life situations. Whether facing uncertainty, seeking peace, or looking for motivation, the book offers words of encouragement that uplift the spirit and bring focus to each day.

The book emphasizes the importance of consistency in spiritual practice. Through daily inspirations and reflective passages, readers are guided to begin or end their day with intention, fostering a deeper sense of awareness and connection. Bills encourages readers to integrate faith into their everyday lives, making spirituality an active and ongoing experience.

Prayed Up also explores the connection between prayer and personal growth. By combining scripture with mindful reflection, the book helps readers build confidence in their faith while developing a stronger understanding of biblical principles.
