

Meteora Capital to Speak at Belay Global SPAC Bootcamp

NEW YORK CITY, NY, UNITED STATES, April 1, 2026 /EINPresswire.com/ -- Meteora Capital is pleased to announce that Henry Rogano, Senior Investment Associate, will speak at the Belay Global SPAC Bootcamp, hosted in partnership with McKinley Acquisition Corp. The event will take place on April 9, 2026, at the CBIZ Corporate Office, 730 Third Avenue, New York City, from 10:00 AM to 3:00 PM ET, with both in-person and virtual attendance options available.

The Belay Global SPAC Bootcamp brings together investors, deal professionals, and capital markets participants for a focused discussion on the current deal environment and the outlook for special purpose acquisition companies. Rogano will share his perspective on the SPAC ecosystem, drawing on his experience at Meteora Capital across a range of public market transactions.

"The SPAC market is in a more interesting place than most people realize. Deal flow is returning, structures have improved, and investors who stayed engaged through the slower years are well-positioned to benefit," said Henry Rogano.
