

Real Estate Broker April Hunter Launches Sports & Entertainment Division

A high-level real estate division serving athletes and entertainers with discretion, strategy, and elite execution

ATLANTA, GA, UNITED STATES, April 1, 2026 /EINPresswire.com/ -- In today's high-performance world, real estate is no longer just about property—it's about timing, discretion, and strategic positioning.

At this level, real estate is no longer about transactions--it's about strategy, timing, and positioning. My clients don't just need access, they need execution, and that's exactly what we deliver.”

April Hunter

Real Estate Broker April Hunter, broker and owner of Hunter International Realty, is bringing a new level of precision to the industry.

With the official launch of her Sports & Entertainment Division, April Hunter expands into a specialized sector designed exclusively for professional athletes, entertainers, and high-profile individuals who require more than traditional real estate services.

This division was built with one focus in mind—execution at the highest level.

From luxury high-rise residences to private estates and strategic investment properties, each opportunity is approached with intention—ensuring alignment not only with lifestyle, but with long-term positioning and wealth preservation.

“Success changes your lifestyle—but it should also elevate your strategy,” says Real Estate Broker April Hunter.

“At this level, real estate is no longer just about where you live. It's about how you move.”

As the broker and owner of Hunter International Realty, April Hunter has built a real estate company designed to operate with structure, precision, and scalability—delivering results across multiple markets while maintaining a high level of client experience.

With a growing presence across Georgia, Florida, Mississippi, and Tennessee, she operates with the reach and flexibility required to serve clients whose careers and lifestyles extend beyond a single city.

This expanded footprint allows for seamless transitions, strategic acquisitions, and consistent representation—no matter where opportunity calls.

The Sports & Entertainment Division delivers a concierge-level experience, including:

- Curated property sourcing tailored to lifestyle, privacy, and security
- Strategic negotiation designed to protect value and maximize leverage
- Access to exclusive and off-market opportunities
- Seamless relocation support for rentals, purchases, and acquisitions

Every client engagement is approached with a clear understanding that real estate decisions at this level are directly tied to brand, timing, and long-term financial trajectory.

This is not transactional representation.

This is strategic alignment.

As the worlds of sports, entertainment, and real estate continue to intersect, the need for elevated, discreet, and results-driven representation has never been greater.

Through this division, April Hunter positions herself at the forefront of that evolution—offering a level of service designed for those who operate at the highest level and expect the same from those who represent them.

This launch marks more than an expansion.

It signals a deliberate move into a space where relationships matter, timing is critical, and execution defines everything.

Because at this level—

Real Estate Broker April Hunter, founder and owner of Hunter International Realty, announces the launch of her Sports & Entertainment Division—an elevated real estate service designed for athletes, entertainers, and high-profile clientele.

real estate is not just personal.

It's power.
