

Alertsify Completes Integration With Nine US Brokerages Through Unified API Platform

Fintech platform unifies account connectivity, order routing, and performance analytics across nine major US brokerages.

FORT LAUDERDALE, FL, UNITED STATES, April 2, 2026 /EINPresswire.com/ -- Alertsify, a fintech software company, has completed integrations with nine major US brokerages, creating a unified platform for account connectivity, order routing, and performance analytics.

The nine supported brokerages are E*TRADE, Charles Schwab, Webull, TastyTrade, Alpaca, MooMoo, Public, Thinkorswim, and WealthSimple. Users connect their existing brokerage accounts to Alertsify and manage activity across all of them from a single dashboard.

Every brokerage API is different. We abstracted all of that complexity into a single, fast, reliable platform.”

Founder, Alertsify

Retail investors who use multiple brokerages typically have to log into separate applications, track positions independently, and manually reconcile performance data. Alertsify's platform consolidates these functions into one interface with sub-two-second transaction processing.

“Every brokerage API is different. Different authentication, different data structures, different order formats. We abstracted all of that complexity into a single, fast, reliable platform,” said the company's founder.

The platform records and aggregates performance data across all connected accounts, providing users with a unified view of their activity. Transaction records include timestamps, parameters, and outcome data, all verified through direct brokerage API connections.

Alertsify also provides integration tools for online community platforms, enabling automated data publishing to Discord servers with full transaction details and timestamps.

Since launching in 2025, the platform has processed over $120 million in total transaction volume and more than 1.5 million individual transactions. Alertsify maintains a 4.78-star rating across 184 user reviews.

The platform offers Free, Lite ($99/month), and PRO ($149/month) subscription tiers.

Alertsify is a self-directed software tool and is not a registered investment adviser or broker-dealer.
