

AIKickstart101 Helps Beginners Learn AI with Confidence

New platform teaches beginners how to use AI tools, where to access them, and what prompts to use

NEW LONDON, CT, UNITED STATES, April 3, 2026 /EINPresswire.com/ -- AIKickstart101 Launches Beginner-Friendly AI Learning Platform

New platform helps everyday people learn AI tools, access top AI platforms, and use prompts with confidence at home or on the go

AI Kickstart 101 announced the launch of AIKickstart101.com, a new educational platform designed to help everyday people learn how to use artificial intelligence tools with confidence, even if they have no technical background.

Created for beginners, AI Kickstart 101 makes AI easier to understand by showing users which platforms to use, how to access them, what they are best for, and what prompts to enter to get useful results. The platform brings together AI learning, tool discovery, prompt guidance, workflows, and step by step support in one place.

AIKickstart101.com is built for people who want practical results, not technical overwhelm. Users can explore AI platforms, browse tools by category, access prompt libraries, follow ready made playbooks, and get help through the AI Coach for specific tasks and goals.

The platform includes a growing collection of AI resources, including:

guidance on AI platforms and how to use them

links to access tools directly prompt examples users can copy and apply right away AI workflows, use cases, and exercises beginner learning paths and glossary support business and money focused resources for real world application

AI Kickstart 101 is designed to help users move from curiosity to action faster, whether they are using AI for writing, marketing, business ideas, productivity, research, or daily tasks.

“AI is everywhere, but many people still do not know where to start, there are so many different platforms to use for different reasons its hard to keep track” said Antonietta Roy. “AI Kickstart 101 was created to make AI practical, approachable, and useful by helping people understand the platforms, access the tools, and use prompts that actually get results.”

In addition to the web platform, AI Kickstart 101 is also available on the Google Play Store, making it even easier for users to learn and explore AI on the go.

The platform is free to get started, with no credit card required.
