

Shale Oak Winery Announces April 2026 Live Music Season in Paso Robles

Free Saturday afternoon performances return to the dog-friendly patio every Saturday from April through October

PASO ROBLES, CA, UNITED STATES, April 3, 2026 /EINPresswire.com/ -- Shale Oak Winery, the LEED Gold and SIP Certified estate winery in the Willow Creek District, has announced its 2026 live music season. Beginning Saturday, April 4, local and regional artists will take the stage every Saturday from 1:00 to 4:00 p.m. Admission is free to the public, and reservations are welcome for patio tastings.

LEED Certified Shale Oak Winery

The season runs through October 2026, offering wine enthusiasts and families a relaxed weekend destination in the heart of Paso Robles wine country. Guests are encouraged to bring the whole family, arrive with their dogs, and settle in for an afternoon of live music and estate-grown wines.

We love that guests can bring their families, including their dogs, and spend the afternoon with us. The fact that it is free to the public means everyone gets to be part of it”

Spring 2026 Lineup:

Saturday, April 4 -- Dave Tate

The season opens Easter weekend with Dave Tate, who brings acoustic guitar and smooth vocals to the Shale Oak stage. An ideal afternoon for families looking for a laid-back start to the holiday weekend.

Saturday, April 11 -- Five Parts Devil

This dazzling trio brings high energy to the patio on April 11. Guests are encouraged to bring dancing shoes for what promises to be one of the livelier afternoons of the spring season.

Saturday, April 18 -- Shae Angles
Shae Angles returns to Shale Oak with the kind of mellow, immersive sound that pairs naturally with a glass of estate wine and an afternoon on the patio.

Saturday, April 25 -- Katie Chappell
April wraps up with the versatile Katie Chappell, whose range and presence on stage make every performance a standout experience for guests of all tastes.

"Live music has always been part of what makes a Saturday at Shale Oak special," said Shale Oak's Tasting Room Manager Steve Burris. "We love that guests can bring their families, including their dogs, and spend the afternoon with us. The fact that it is free to the public means everyone gets to be part of it."
