SAINT PAUL, MN, UNITED STATES, April 7, 2026 /EINPresswire.com/ -- Redpath is proud to support Hired, a Twin Cities nonprofit connecting jobseekers to meaningful employment opportunities, through a $15,000 donation. As Redpath's 2025 charitable partner, this donation contributes to Hired's mission of advancing economic opportunity through workforce development.

Each year, Redpath selects a nonprofit partner whose mission aligns with the firm's values. The decision to partner with Hired reflects the firm's Core Value of Caring, which emphasizes building meaningful relationships, supporting communities, and creating lasting value.

In 2025, Redpath employees rallied around Hired in recognition of its people-centered approach to workforce development, and its critical role in expanding opportunity and strengthening families across the Twin Cities.

Partnering with Hired is an impactful way to help create strong futures for individuals in our community.”

“Support from organizations like Redpath allows us to continue meeting people where they are and providing the individualized services that lead to meaningful employment and greater family stability,” said Julie Brekke, President and CEO. “This partnership reflects our shared belief that when people are supported with care and intention, they have what they need to build strong futures for themselves and their families.”

Together, Redpath and Hired share a common goal: strengthening the Twin Cities by investing in people, expanding opportunity, and supporting pathways to stable, meaningful work.
