Real Federación Española de Béisbol y Sófbol (RFEBBS), founded on March 23, 1944, is the official governing body for baseball and softball in Spain. As the national federation, RFEBBS oversees the development and organization of the sport across the entire country, working in collaboration with regional federations, clubs, athletes, coaches, and officials. It manages national competitions, publishes official results and calendars, and leads the identification, training, and selection of players representing Spain in international tournaments. RFEBBS is currently led by President Pablo Carpio and Secretary General Jordi Vallès, whose leadership continues to drive the growth and international presence of Spanish baseball and softball. <https://www.rfebs.es/>
