

SalesForce Launches Custom CRM Platform for Sales Teams

New platform consolidates pipeline management and analytics for sales teams

LEWES, DE, UNITED STATES, April 7, 2026 /EINPresswire.com/ -- SalesForce today announced the launch of its custom CRM platform designed specifically for sales teams seeking to improve productivity and results.

Sales teams frequently manage multiple disconnected tools, spend excessive time on manual data entry, and miss opportunities when follow-up tasks fall through the cracks. SalesForce was developed to address these challenges by consolidating essential sales functions into a single, highly configurable platform.

The platform offers a Pipeline Manager with fully customizable workflows, a centralized Contact Hub, intelligent Sales Automation, and Revenue Intelligence capabilities that deliver real-time analytics. SalesForce promises rapid value with a 48-hour onboarding process and supports integration with more than 50 business applications including Stripe, Notion, Dropbox, Asana, Zendesk, Intercom, Slack and HubSpot.

SalesForce delivers the flexibility needed to close more deals.”

A company spokesperson

Early users have reported 2.8 times faster deal cycles and an average win rate of 72 percent.

The platform is now available at <https://salesforce.com/> with self-service onboarding.
