STRATEGIC EXPANSION INTO CANADA

Through this partnership with Vivere, Bones Is Back® will be available to Canadian retailers nationwide, significantly expanding the brand's North American footprint. The move follows strong U.S. momentum, including a successful Kickstarter launch, national e-commerce growth, and multiple industry awards. "From the beginning, our vision was to create a tradition that families everywhere can enjoy," said Marc Fetscherin, creator of Bones Is Back®. "Expanding into Canada is an important milestone, and Vivere is the ideal partner to help us scale while maintaining the quality and experience that define our brand." The partnership with Vivere enables efficient market entry, established retail relationships, and localized distribution—positioning Bones Is Back® for rapid adoption in the Canadian specialty and gift market.

POSITIONED FOR GROWTH IN A CHANGING MARKET

The expansion comes at a time when families are increasingly seeking screen-free, interactive experiences and new ways to celebrate seasonal traditions. Bones Is Back® addresses this shift by transforming Halloween from a single candy-focused night into a month-long, creativity-driven family experience. With its core concept—Play, Pose, Prank—the product empowers children to take the lead, encouraging imagination, storytelling, and daily engagement while remaining simple and stress-free for parents.

PROVEN PROGRESS

The expansion into Canada builds on a series of milestones for Bones Is Back®, including a fully funded Kickstarter launch in 2025. Bones Is Back® has been honored with several major industry awards, including the Book of the Year Award by Creative Child Magazine (2025), the Mom's Choice Gold Award® (2025), the National Parenting Product Awards (NAPPA) (2026), or the PAL Award (Play Advances Learning) (2026). These recognitions underscore the product's positive impact on family connection, creativity, and inclusive play, while also supporting children's speech, language, and literacy development.

AVAILABILITY

Bones Is Back® will be available across Canada and the United States for the upcoming Halloween season through select retailers and online platforms, including Amazon. Quantities are limited due to seasonal demand.
