About American Chamber of Commerce in Spain (AmChamSpain)

The American Chamber of Commerce in Spain (AmChamSpain), founded in 1917, is a non-political, non-profit organization representing more than 240 companies with a combined revenue of €248 billion in Spain — approximately 20% of the GDP — and generating over one million direct and indirect jobs. Its members include major U.S. multinationals (27 of which are in the Fortune 100), Spanish companies (including 17 from the IBEX-35), and SMEs from both countries. Its mission is to strengthen public-private collaboration by promoting initiatives that contribute to economic growth, improving competitiveness, and fostering the internationalization of the Spanish economy. AmChamSpain is part of the global network of AmChams, which are affiliated with the U.S. Chamber of Commerce, the leading business organization in the United States, representing more than 3 million businesses.
