

Janet Walker, Commemorating Sexual Assault Awareness Month, Details Her Survival Story in 'Unholy Alliances'

BEVERLY HILLS, CA, UNITED STATES, April 9, 2026 /EINPresswire.com/ -- Janet Walker, author, screenwriter, and publisher of Haute-Lifestyle.com, in commemoration of the 25th anniversary of the designation of Sexual Assault Awareness Month, details her survival story in the nonfiction narrative memoir "Unholy Alliances: A True Crime Story."

"Unholy Alliances: A True Crime Story," called a "powerful narrative" by Elle Magazine, presents an explosive criminal cover-up and, through personal narrative and exposé, details a crime network brought on by chance encounters and hidden under the umbrella of religion and an unspoken, but understood, special privileges law in Manhattan.

Weaving a compelling narrative, the author reveals her triumphs over childhood abuse and her entertainment beginnings only to encounter a financially desperate one-hit wonder preacher, a bloodthirsty anything-for-entertainment attorney, and a wild pack of salivating happy-ever-after thieves, who each set a trap through textbook grooming and expert circumventing. The story, told in the first person, gives readers a glimpse into a life of promise and determination as she meets evil in the church and criminals in a law firm.

Told by an experienced and educated journalist, "Unholy Alliances: A True Crime Story" connects the pieces to a multi-layered criminal enterprise, intertwining expert opinion in criminal psychopathy that unpacks the emergence of shocking post 9/11 evil, and reveals along the way broader cultural themes of affordable housing, roommate violence, the shameful treatment of sexual assault victims, scam culture, religious cults, trauma, corporate retaliation, a double edged legal system, and the truth that any person presented with the right inducement can be pulled off the rails.

"Unholy Alliances: A True Crime Story" is available to readers on Amazon.

Ms. Walker is also celebrating the success of her five original screenplays, which continue to earn global raves from Cannes to Toronto and Los Angeles to Chicago.

The recent recognition of each of Ms. Walker's five screenplays, "The Six Sides of Truth," "The Wednesday Killer," "The Manhattan Project," "The Assassins of Fifth Avenue," and "Project 13: The Last Day," elevates the total awards and selections to more than 132 international awards and selections.

"The Six Sides of Truth" tells the story of a female reporter who discovered the human testing of a classified project and her race against time to expose the high-ranking government officials who will stop at nothing to silence her.

"The Wednesday Killer," a riveting, race-against-time crime drama, tells the story of a sadomasochistic murderer targeting affluent New York City women and the FBI agent driven by childhood memories to catch this monster before he kills again.

"The Manhattan Project," a riveting, fast-action, suspense thriller, weaves a tale of greed and corruption, as a dedicated investigative news team works to expose a depraved minister and a tenacious DEA agent, haunted by the murder of her family, race to capture a ruthless cartel leader with a foothold in Manhattan's legal system.

"The Assassins of Fifth Avenue," an edgy crime thriller, tells the story of a wealthy criminal mastermind, a serial killer, and a reporter determined to uncover the truth and the exiled detective she enlists to help her find the killer before he kills again.
