Day-to-day shop operations are led by Ashley and a team of automotive technicians who handle services ranging from routine maintenance to engine diagnostics. Murray, who founded the business after earning his Ford Master ASE Certification, has stated his intention to return to hands-on work at the shop to support operations alongside the existing team.

“The quality you see at To Get It Fixed is a direct reflection of Ashley and her guys. They are the heart of this shop. My job is to make sure they have everything they need to keep doing what they do best — taking great care of every customer who walks through that door.”

— Jason Murray, Founder, To Get It Fixed LLC

To Get It Fixed LLC provides automotive services for gas-powered domestic and foreign vehicles, including engine repair and diagnostics, standard maintenance, exhaust service, auto electrical repair, suspension service, wheel alignments, and heating and air conditioning repair. The shop services vehicle makes including Ford, Chevrolet, Dodge, Jeep, Toyota, Honda, Subaru, BMW, Nissan, and others. Repairs are performed using diagnostic equipment and manufacturer-specified parts.

The shop offers several customer communication options, including vehicle status updates by phone, text, and email. Contactless service is also available, allowing customers to complete vehicle drop-off, check-in, and payment remotely. Before-and-after photos of repairs are available upon request. The shop also conducts multi-point vehicle inspections during service appointments to identify maintenance or safety items outside the scope of the original repair request.

Jason Murray, Founder, To Get It Fixed LLC

To Get It Fixed LLC is more than a business — it is a reflection of the Richmond community that helped build it. Murray expresses deep gratitude to his wife Heather and her parents, his uncle Bruce Tipton and uncle Donny Murray — both of whom contributed equipment that helped make the shop a reality — and the many friends and supporters whose encouragement made the journey possible, including Dennis Alejo, Dan Groth, Paul Fisher, Jason Flood, Jason and Chandra Falcone, Steve Maurer, Shannon Moores, Kim Oaks, and Bob Frantz — Murray’s Ivy Tech instructor who has continued to offer guidance and support beyond the classroom. “Every one of these people helped me in some way, shape, or form,”

Murray says. “This shop belongs to this community.”
