

Record Riots LLC Launches Record Show Mania, a Comprehensive Online Hub for Vinyl Record Events Nationwide

Customers, dealers, and promoters can all benefit from Record Show Mania's easy interface and vinyl event search functions.

JERSEY CITY, NJ, UNITED STATES, April 13, 2026 /EINPresswire.com/ -- Record Riots LLC, a leading promoter of vinyl record events across the United States, is proud to officially launch Record Show Mania, a new website dedicated to connecting vinyl record enthusiasts with record shows across the country.

The site, available at www.recordshowmania.com, has been operating in beta and is already rapidly gaining traction as one of the most popular online destinations for vinyl record show listings in the U.S.

Record Show Mania is designed to serve both collectors and promoters. Vinyl buyers can easily search for upcoming events and access key details including show dates, locations, hours, and more.

Meanwhile, promoters benefit from a powerful, flexible platform that allows them to create and manage detailed event listings.

Unlike traditional online record show directories, Record Show Mania gives promoters full control over their listings. Users can update information at any time, ensuring event details remain accurate and up to date. Promoters can also include expanded information such as dealer participation, show highlights, and additional logistical details tailored to both customers and vendors.

Best of all, Record Show Mania is free for both attendees and promoters, lowering the barrier to entry and encouraging broader participation across the vinyl community.
