

Italian American One Voice Coalition Debuts Newest Edition of The One Voice Minute – 'A Historic Alliance' with NAGA

IAOVC highlights interesting facts about Italian American heritage and culture with a series of "bite-sized" video features.

NORTHVALE, NJ, UNITED STATES, April 13, 2026 /EINPresswire.com/ -- The Italian American One Voice Coalition ("IAOVC"), America's largest independent Italian American anti-bias organization, continues its initiative to highlight interesting facts about the Italian American experience in America with concise, informative and fact-filled videos. Dubbed "The One Voice Minute" the newest edition just released presents an historic alliance between Italian Americans and the Native American Guardian's Association ("NAGA").

Native American and Italian American communities have long faced marginalization, misrepresentation, and enduring stereotypes. Through the alliance forged between NAGA and Italian Americans they stand together to safeguard their stories and ensure their histories are presented accurately and respectfully. Learn more about this alliance by watching this new edition of The One Voice Minute video.

The videos, written and produced by Frank Cipolla, are hosted by Andre' DiMino, President of IAOVC, who regularly appears on TV and radio representing IAOVC in its efforts at fighting stereotyping and denigration of Italian Americans, and defending Columbus, the iconic symbol
