

Influential Women Profiles Atlanta Voice Actor Danielle Harris, Bringing Brands to Life Through Brainstorm LLC

ATLANTA, GA, UNITED STATES, April 15, 2026 /EINPresswire.com/ -- Combining Creativity, Business Acumen, and Faith to Inspire Audiences and Empower Emerging Voice Talent

Atlanta, Georgia – Danielle Harris is a professional voice actor and the Founder of Brainstorm Recordings LLC, where she helps brands, businesses, and stories come alive through her versatile voice. With expertise spanning promo, commercial, political, eLearning, corporate narration, and imaging, Danielle has earned a reputation for connecting clients with their audiences in meaningful, memorable ways. Her work inspires listeners to engage, invest, and feel something real, making her a trusted partner for both small businesses and major corporations alike.

Danielle combines creative talent with strong business acumen. She earned a Master of Science in Organizational Leadership and a Degree in Business Administration and Management from Argosy University, equipping her with the knowledge and perspective to approach each project with professionalism, reliability, and strategic insight. This blend of creativity and business savvy has made her an in-demand voice for leading companies, including Canva, Microsoft, Dollar General, Michelob Ultra, Planned Parenthood, Walmart, Verizon, and Sonos.

Beyond her technical expertise, Danielle is known for her collaborative approach and exceptional client service. She ensures that every project is not only high-quality but also seamless and enjoyable. Through speaking engagements, panels, and breakout sessions, she inspires the next generation of voice actors, offering guidance on the intersection of personal life, health, support systems, and career success. Danielle's mission is clear: to help businesses tell their story while delivering a voice that resonates and leaves a lasting impression.

Danielle attributes her success to her faith in God. She credits her devotion to Christ with shaping her personal and professional growth, noting that keeping her priorities aligned with His guidance has been instrumental in navigating challenges, making decisions, and staying focused on her goals.

The most influential career advice Danielle has received is to never get too comfortable. She explains that moments of comfort signal the need to pivot, embrace new challenges, and continue growing personally and professionally. This mindset has empowered her to approach opportunities with courage, adaptability, and focus, helping her consistently expand her skill set and client reach.

For young women entering the voiceover industry, Danielle encourages trusting one's instincts while adapting guidance and opportunities to align with personal values. She emphasizes that staying true to oneself is key to thriving and finding fulfillment while navigating a competitive and evolving field.

Danielle acknowledges that one of the biggest challenges in her field is balancing the many roles that come with running a business. From strategic decision-making to managing personal priorities, wearing multiple hats can be demanding. Yet she views these challenges as opportunities to grow, learn, and build resilience in ways few other experiences provide.

At the heart of Danielle's work and life is integrity. She consistently acts with honesty, accountability, and consistency, believing that trust and ethical behavior form the foundation for meaningful relationships and lasting success.

Through her voice, leadership, and example, Danielle Harris continues to inspire audiences, empower clients, and elevate the field of professional voice acting.
