

Fetch Me Later Provides Customized Dog Boarding Experiences Based on Each Pet's Needs

McKinney-based Fetch Me Later tailored boarding stays through suite choices, enrichment options and trained care shaped around each dog's needs.

MCKINNEY, TX, UNITED STATES, April 17, 2026 /EINPresswire.com/ -- Fetch Me Later, a professional luxury pet resort in McKinney, Texas, provided customized dog boarding experiences based on each pet's activity level, privacy needs, social preferences and care requirements, using accommodations and enrichment options that had been refined at the family-owned facility since 1998.

Located on Highway 380 between Coit Road and Custer Road, the business served dog owners who valued premium care in McKinney, Frisco and Prosper, as well as the broader Collin County area, generally within 10 miles of 75071. According to company materials, customers traveled to the McKinney location to access services, where the mission centered on providing a trusted source for pet care and treating each guest as valued, loved and cared for as family. Company-provided information showed that boarding options had been structured to suit different temperaments and routines, including:

- Indoor/outdoor Patio Suites with 5-foot-by-7-foot rooms, 5-foot-by-6-foot patios, 24-hour patio access through a flap-style doggie door and five daily trips to the play yard.
- Indoor Pool View Suites with 5-foot-by-11-foot rooms, color TVs, full-length pool-view windows, five daily play-yard trips and a 10 p.m. bedtime walk.
- Standard and giant indoor/outdoor runs, including a 4-foot-by-5-foot room with a 4-foot-by-15-foot run and a 7-foot-by-5-foot room with a 7-foot-by-15-foot run, for dogs that preferred larger exterior space.

- Cozy Condos during holidays for well-socialized dogs up to 25 pounds, with seven playtime outings, a 10 p.m. potty walk and added one-on-one attention.

All rooms included Kuranda cots, blankets, fresh chilled water, medication administration as needed, except injectable medication, and at least five playtimes in the resort's 1/4-acre yards. Dogs could play with friends or separately, depending on preference. A complimentary checkout bath for boarding guests, small-group play capped at six dogs, pool time and treat-based enrichments such as licky mats, Kongs, ice cream and pupsicles were also listed among the available options.

The boarding model was supported by 3 acres of fields and wooded grounds in McKinney. Fetch Me Later also stated that enrichment could be adjusted to match each dog's personality, including individual play, additional outdoor play, nature walks, fetch, cuddle time and pool time. The company's materials further stated that operations followed a pet bill of rights and employee code of ethics centered on safety, sanitation, supervision, proper hydration, exercise, required immunizations and honest communication with pet parents.

In company background materials, Denise McGough was identified as a certified pet first aid and CPR instructor who was on-site most days. The business also cited membership in The Dog Gurus in 2022 and bronze membership in the International Boarding & Pet Services Association in 2025.

Customer feedback supplied for this release reflected the emphasis on individualized care. Laurenz N. said, "Honestly, the best boarding experience we've had. Knowing my dog isn't stressed out in a cage all day is worth every penny."

Nicole T. added, "Fetch Me Later is Amazing! Our dog has boarded here many times and he loves it! The staff are incredible and take such great care of our big fur baby. I wouldn't trust anyone else to care for our dog the way they do."
