The space includes wine and whiskey lockers, a cigar program, privacy conference pods, and a private theatre with the largest screen of any private club in Naples. It functions as a post-round stop, a member meeting room, and an off-site venue.

We are proud to call Naples home. This is not a franchise. It is not private equity buying into aviation. Our Team operates flights around the world every day. Naples is where we started.”

Michael Farley, CEO & Founder

The grand opening weekend began Friday, March 26 with eighty invitation-only guests, Argentinian steakhouse dining and a curated bar. On Saturday, Cars & JetFuel drew over 250 attendees for a full-day activation alongside Lamborghini Naples, Henssler Financial, Reset Wellness, and Noble Brews. Both days were at capacity.

— Michael Farley, Founder and CEO, Outlier Jets

Outlier Jets offers fully refundable jet cards with no peak-day surcharges and no repositioning fees, and operates as a fiduciary to its members. The company has held that position since 2018. In addition to the leading National Jet Card program, Outlier Members have access to the global charter platform and leading whole aircraft sales intelligence.

The Flight Command also runs a structured education program for members who want a deeper understanding of how the industry works. Sessions cover aircraft make and model comparisons, fuel and market pricing, charter cost structures, and acquisition strategy. The goal is a member who can evaluate any proposal, from any provider, without deferring to anyone. Outlier is comfortable with that standard.

The company is expanding and actively seeking aviation sales professionals. Outlier is a relationship-driven, founder-led operation, not a call center. Candidates who want to work differently are invited to reach out at outlierjets.com.

Member programming for 2026 will be announced through member and partner channels.
