The Red Hotel Series – 4 thrillers available on Amazon

Written by Ed Fuller and Gary Grossman, the Red Hotel Series blends real-world experience with masterful storytelling, delivering high-stakes narratives that mirror today's geopolitical tensions.

Grossman and Fuller have delivered both a thrilling read and a terrifying warning that today's geopolitical fiction could very well become tomorrow's headlines!”

Larry Mondragon, Executive Producer, “The Wheel of Time” TV Series

With settings that span Washington, D.C., Europe, the Middle East, and Asia, the series has earned a reputation for being as plausible as it is pulse-pounding.

A Thriller Series Rooted in Reality

Drawing on Fuller's background in military service and global hospitality leadership, alongside Grossman's expertise as an accomplished novelist and television producer, the series explores the juncture of international business, espionage, and global conflict.

At the center is Dan Reilly, a former Army intelligence officer, now an international hotel executive navigating a dangerous world where hotels are more than destinations—they are crossroads for power, intelligence, and crisis.

The Relunched Titles Include:

RED HOTEL

A devastating hotel bombing in Tokyo sets off a chain of events tied to rising Russian aggression and global instability. As tensions escalate toward a potential NATO conflict, Reilly races across continents to prevent a catastrophic attack in Brussels—while uncovering a deadly conspiracy that reaches the highest levels of power.

RED DECEPTION

Coordinated terrorist attacks strike critical U.S. infrastructure, exposing vulnerabilities at the heart of the nation. As the threat escalates toward a potential strike on Hoover Dam, Reilly must unravel a complex web of deception involving global actors, intelligence agencies, and betrayal closer to home than he imagined.

RED CHAOS

A series of assassinations targeting global oil executives signals a larger plot to control the world's energy supply. From Washington to the South China Sea, Reilly confronts a high stakes battle for economic dominance, where control of oil routes could reshape global power.

RED ULTIMATUM

The downing of a U.S. presidential aircraft and escalating tensions with North Korea push the world to the brink of crisis. As diplomatic channels collapse, Reilly is drawn into a race against time involving kidnapping, military intervention, and a threat reminiscent of the most dangerous moments in modern history.
