Overview of "Godzilla Interception Operation"

"Godzilla Interception Operation" is the world's only entertainment attraction themed around a life-size Godzilla, measuring 120 meters in length, located on Awaji Island, Hyogo, Japan. Guests can truly experience the overwhelming power and scale of Godzilla up close.

Participants join the National Godzilla Awaji Island Research Center and take on thrilling missions, including a zipline that enters Godzilla's body, recreated with detailed design, as well as a shooting activity to eliminate scattered Godzilla cells.

The attraction also features a permanent Godzilla Museum, as well as an indoor kids' area called "Kaiju no Mori," where younger guests can freely play with approximately 50 types of soft vinyl monster figures.

In addition, visitors can enjoy exclusive merchandise from the National Godzilla Awaji Island Research Center and themed food inspired by the world of "Godzilla Interception Operation."

At Godzilla Interception Operation, a wide selection of Godzilla merchandise is available, including items exclusive to Nijigen no Mori.

Guests can also select from souvenirs such as figures and sweets to commemorate their visit.
