Training, the gold standard in Exemplar Global certified auditor training, is thrilled to announce the official launch of its highly anticipated NextGen Learning Platform, alongside a premier portfolio of ISO 14001:2026 training courses. This major release sets a new benchmark in professional education, headlined by an exclusive "Certified Manager" track designed specifically for high-level strategic leaders, alongside a complete suite of foundational and transition auditor programs.

As global industries prepare for the critical shift to the new 2026 revisions, Velocity 360 has completely reimaged the digital classroom. The NextGen Learning Platform abandons the traditional, static online course model in favor of a dynamic, highly interactive architecture featuring high-impact overview videos, targeted micro-lessons, comprehensive slide decks, and robust interactive quizzes.

"Our goal wasn't just to update the content; it was to fundamentally elevate how professionals interact with complex standards," said Ashton M. Crowder, General Manager at Velocity 360 USA Training. "The NextGen platform allows auditors and managers at every level to master critical updates—like the transition from 'outsourced processes' to the broader 'externally provided processes, products, or services'—with absolute clarity and confidence."

Strategic Highlights of the New ISO 14001:2026 Portfolio:

- Exclusive "Certified Manager" Leadership Track: Headlined by the premium ISO 14001:2026 Certified Environmental Systems Manager and the dual-standard Certified EHS Manager (Integrated ISO 14001:2026 & ISO 45001:2018) programs. These elite courses provide a premier credential and high-value career currency for professionals tasked with the strategic oversight of complex management systems.

- Comprehensive Auditor Pathways: A complete suite of tailored courses, including ISO 14001:2026 Lead Auditor, ISO 14001:2026 Internal Auditor, and targeted ISO 14001:2026 Transition Training, ensuring professionals at every stage of their career are fully equipped to audit against the new 2026 requirements.
- Elite Global Recognition & Value: Delivering exceptional value through industry-leading pricing, all programs award internationally recognized Exemplar Global Certificates of Competence digital credentials upon successful completion.
- Flexible, On-Demand Micro-Learning: Delivered in a fully student-paced format, complex requirements are broken down into digestible micro-lessons and overview videos, allowing professionals to achieve certification anytime, anywhere.
- Actionable Tools & Rigorous Assessments: Upgraded interactive quizzes are seamlessly woven throughout the learning journey, alongside specialized gap analysis checklists that allow students to immediately translate their learning into real-world transitions.

"This launch represents a defining moment for the environmental, health, and safety professionals we serve around the world," said Hailey B. Crowder, Director of Marketing and Sales at Velocity 360 USA Training. "By pairing our most exclusive leadership courses and core auditor pathways with the NextGen platform's superior video content overviews, micro-lessons and engaging flow, we are empowering global leaders with the exact tools they need to drive sustainability and compliance at the highest level."
