

Koniag Government Services Welcomes New Distinguished Partner Imagineer to its Strategic Partner Program

CHANTILLY, VA, UNITED STATES, April 21, 2026 /EINPresswire.com/ -- Koniag Government Services \(KGS\), a leading provider of innovative solutions to government agencies, proudly announces the expansion of its Strategic Partner Program. This initiative reinforces the company's unwavering commitment to supporting small businesses and enhancing service delivery for its customers. As part of this expansion, KGS is delighted to welcome Imagineer, LLC, an innovative and agile small business specializing in AI-driven cybersecurity, autonomous operations, and data governance platforms for federal agencies. Imagineer brings agencies, data, and teams together to build shared, scalable, production-ready solutions that modernize operations, transform legacy environments, and make AI real in government.

[With our Strategic Partner Program] KGS is committed to building a collaborative ecosystem where small businesses can thrive.”

Carl Buffington, Chief Growth Officer at Koniag Government Services

KGS and Imagineer form a uniquely powerful partnership and are successfully working together to implement Zero Trust frameworks, continuous monitoring, and AI-driven risk management across complex multi-cloud environments. Our combined leadership brings exceptional technical and governance expertise from cybersecurity, health, and defense programs - delivering the strategic insight and operational maturity needed to strengthen organizational security posture while driving sustainable modernization initiatives.

Through the Strategic Partner Program, KGS aims to eliminate barriers for partner small businesses, enabling them to tap into new customers and opportunities. Unlike traditional transactional partnerships, KGS and its Strategic Partners share common cultural values, including loyalty, business ethics, commitment to excellence, employee growth, continuous improvement, and brand pride. Partners also share the responsibility of contributing to the program's success.

"KGS is committed to building a collaborative ecosystem where small businesses can thrive," said Carl Buffington, Chief Growth Officer at KGS. "By partnering with exceptional companies like Imagineer, we can combine strengths, foster innovation, and deliver unparalleled value to our customers."

Combining capabilities with its partners through the Strategic Partner Program, KGS creates a powerful synergy, offering customers a competitive edge and driving success across industries.

"At Imagineer, we believe the future of government is built on integrating data, operations, and AI into scalable, mission-ready capabilities. Our partnership with KGS allows us to combine trusted delivery with modern technology to help agencies move faster, operate more efficiently, and achieve measurable outcomes at scale," says Jose Arrieta, CEO, Imagineer.
