The 2026 programme introduces updated categories across regional, global, leadership and specialist awards. New categories include Best AI-Driven Wealth Management Solution, Best Use of Data & Analytics, Best

Digital Onboarding & Self-Service Experience, Best Wealth Tech Solution for Emerging Client Segments and Best Private Bank for Women / Underrepresented Clients.

These additions reflect key industry trends, as firms enhance digital capabilities, increase personalisation and address the evolving needs of a broader, more diverse client base.

“The PBI Global Wealth Awards are the premier recognition programme in private banking and wealth management, and reflect the priorities shaping the market today, from digital capability and client engagement to more tailored wealth propositions,” said Sarah Rizvi, banking and finance editor at MEED.

The awards are free to enter and open to private banks, wealth managers, family offices and private banking teams serving high-net-worth and ultra-high-net-worth clients worldwide.

Participating this year offers global brand exposure on a prestigious international stage, independent validation through a rigorous benchmarking process against global peers, and the chance to build client trust by showcasing a proven commitment to excellence.

Winners will be announced at the awards ceremony in Singapore on 8 October 2026.
