The itinerary then continues to the Masai Mara National Reserve, where guests spend three nights at Mara Ngenche Safari Camp. The reserve is widely recognized for its biodiversity and seasonal wildlife movements, including the Great Migration. Activities during this segment include guided game drives led by professional driver-guides.

Following the Maasai Mara, the journey proceeds to Naivasha for a two-night stay at Enashipai Resort and Spa. This portion of the itinerary focuses on the landscapes of the Great Rift Valley, with excursions to Lake Naivasha and Lake Nakuru National Park, an area noted for its rhino populations and birdlife.

The final night is spent back in Nairobi at the Four Points by Sheraton Nairobi Airport, providing convenient access to departure flights from Jomo Kenyatta International Airport.

Pricing for the package varies by season, with 2026 rates ranging from USD 4,870 to USD 6,785 per person (based on two persons sharing), and 2027 rates ranging from USD 5,360 to USD 7,465. Rates exclude peak holiday supplements such as Easter, Christmas, and New Year.

The package includes accommodation as specified, ground transportation in 4x4 safari vehicles, park fees, selected excursions in Nairobi, and a domestic flight to the Maasai Mara. Optional add-ons, such as a Maasai village visit, bush breakfast, and hot air balloon safari, are available at additional cost.

According to the company, the program is designed to provide a structured overview of Kenya's travel regions while maintaining flexibility for operational adjustments, including accommodation substitutions in cases of limited availability.
