Dudley DeBosier wins three Best of Baton Rouge award

The Best of Baton Rouge awards program, hosted annually by The Advocate, celebrates outstanding businesses and organizations across the Capital Region. Winners are selected through a public nomination and voting process, highlighting the businesses residents trust most.

We are incredibly honored to be recognized with three Gold awards by the Baton Rouge community.”

Chad Dudley, Founding Partner of Dudley DeBosier Injury Lawyers

“We are incredibly honored to be recognized with three Gold awards by the Baton Rouge community,” said Chad Dudley, Founding Partner of Dudley DeBosier Injury Lawyers. “Our team works hard every day to stand up for injured individuals and families across Louisiana. To have our community acknowledge that work in this way means a great deal to all of us.”

In addition to being named Best Law Firm overall, Dudley DeBosier earned top recognition in both Personal Injury Law and Workers' Compensation Law, two areas that represent the core of the firm's practice. From car and trucking accidents to workplace injuries and complex workers' compensation claims, the firm remains committed to guiding clients through challenging circumstances with experience and compassion.

“This recognition reflects the dedication of our attorneys and staff who put clients first in everything we do,” said Steve DeBosier, Founding Partner of Dudley DeBosier Injury Lawyers. “We are grateful for the trust the Baton Rouge community continues to place in us, and we remain focused on serving our neighbors with integrity and determination.”

The firm extends its sincere thanks to everyone who voted and to the Baton Rouge community for its continued support.
