

Modigent Unifies Greenville-Spartanburg Operations Under W.N. Kirkland, Expanding Mechanical and Plumbing Capabilities

GREENVILLE, SC, UNITED STATES, April 29, 2026 /EINPresswire.com/ -- Modigent, a leader in infrastructure, technology, and energy solutions, has completed the integration of Greenville Mechanical, LLC into W.N. Kirkland LLC, consolidating its Greenville-Spartanburg operations and expanding its full-service capabilities in one of the Southeast's fastest-growing markets.

The combined entity operates under the W.N. Kirkland name, offering HVAC and mechanical services, as well as comprehensive plumbing capabilities—a broader platform than either company carried independently. All existing customer agreements, commitments, and points of contact remain unchanged.

The integration gives us more resources and capabilities to serve our customers in the region. The Greenville-Spartanburg market is growing fast, and now we're built to grow with it.”

Chris Schulken, Regional President at Modigent

“The integration gives us more resources and capabilities to serve our customers in the region,” said Chris Schulken, Regional President at Modigent. “The Greenville-Spartanburg market is growing fast, and now we're built to grow with it.”

The Greenville-Spartanburg market has seen accelerating demand across K-12 education, healthcare, and industrial sectors, with industrial—including manufacturing and warehousing—emerging as a particularly active segment. The unified W.N. Kirkland operation is positioned to meet that demand with greater workforce depth and project capacity.

The move is consistent with Modigent's broader approach of strengthening regional operations through disciplined integration—aligning leadership, improving efficiency, and unlocking growth within its portfolio.
