

Concierge Auctions Unveils Historic Lineup of US$300M+ for May 2026 Global Sale in London

Global leader sets a new record with largest lineup ever: 29 properties from three continents to auction live at one of its most anticipated event of the year

NEW YORK, NY, UNITED STATES, April 28, 2026 /EINPresswire.com/ -- Leading luxury real estate auction house Concierge Auctions is proud to present its over US$300M lineup for its May 2026 London Global Sale, featuring an exceptional curation of 29 luxury properties across Europe, North America, and South America. Bidding will close live over the course of two days on 27 and 28 May at separate venues at The Connaught in Mayfair and Sotheby's London.

"Our London Global Sales continue to set new standards for the industry, exclusively bringing together a curated collection of properties from around the world and presenting them to an international audience of buyers, all in a single sale," said Krystal Aeby, President of Concierge Auctions. "What makes these events so powerful is that every registered buyer can bid on any property in the lineup, which means a larger pool of qualified buyers for sellers and a truly global marketplace for buyers seeking exceptional properties worldwide. In partnership with our brokerage partners, these sales are as much an opportunity for buyers discovering world-class offerings as they are for sellers reaching the right audience, held in the world's largest financial markets."
