Beginning April 29, in celebration of his birthday, Britt is inviting fans, artists, families, and communities everywhere to participate in a simple but powerful challenge: Finish the sentence:

“You are beautiful because _____.”

I wrote You Are Beautiful ... because of all the people in our lives who need to be reminded of who they are. I want people everywhere to tell someone they matter.”

Participants are encouraged to post a photo or short video honoring someone special in their lives—a parent, child, sibling, friend, mentor, spouse, or loved one—and share why that person is beautiful using the hashtag #YouAreBeautiful. Tributes can be shared on any social platform and paired with Britt's new single.

“I wanted to celebrate someone who changed my life forever—my daughter, Mariah,” says Britt. “I wrote You Are Beautiful because of her... and because of all the people in our lives who need to be reminded of who they are. I want people everywhere to tell someone they matter.”

Inspired by his daughter, the song carries a deeply personal message of self-worth, appreciation, and unconditional love—values Britt hopes to amplify through collective storytelling online. Now streaming everywhere, You Are Beautiful will debut in four distinct versions, allowing the song to connect across audiences and moods: Smooth Jazz, Smooth R&B, Dance Mix, and R&B Mix available for pre-order today.

Whether listeners want reflective elegance, soulful warmth, or high-energy celebration, Britt's latest release offers a version for everyone. Individuals can join the You Are Beautiful Movement at johnnybritt.com.

Known for his signature vocals, exceptional trumpet and flugelhorn work, and genre-blending artistry, Britt continues to evolve while staying rooted in music that uplifts and inspires. Fans can join the movement beginning April 29 by posting their own tribute and using #YouAreBeautifulMovement.
