

VIP IGNITE'S ALYCIA KABACK EXPANDS TALENT DEVELOPMENT PROGRAMS WITH NEW CERTIFICATIONS & INDUSTRY PARTNERSHIPS

VIP Ignite Co-Founder Alycia Kaback Reflects on 20 Years of Industry Impact, The Evolving Talent Development Space & What Is Next for Aspiring Models and Actors

NEW YORK, NY, UNITED STATES, April 30, 2026 /EINPresswire.com/ -- In an industry not known for giving newcomers a fair shot, Alycia Kaback has spent nearly 20 years making sure they get one. As Co-Founder and driving creative force behind VIP Ignite, Kaback has helped thousands of aspiring models and actors connect with agents, casting directors, and entertainment professionals who changed the trajectory of their careers.

Kaback's philosophy has always been simple and uncompromising: talent is everywhere, but access is not. Since co-founding VIP Ignite alongside Sir Michael Fomkin, she has worked to close that gap — building live events, coaching programs, certification initiatives, and industry partnerships that have transformed VIP Ignite into one of the most recognized talent development organizations in the country.

"I have never been interested in telling people what they cannot do," Kaback said. "This industry has enough people doing that already. What I have always been focused on is building the bridge between where someone is and where they are capable of going. That is what VIP Ignite does. That is what I do."

As VIP Ignite marks its 20th anniversary in 2026 with a landmark celebration event in Los Angeles, Kaback shows no signs of slowing down. The organization is expanding its program offerings, including the newly launched Certified Production Assistant Program, upcoming industry networking events in New York City and Miami, and a growing network of industry partnerships that continue to place VIP Ignite alumni in professional working environments.

Kaback's influence extends beyond VIP Ignite's direct programs. As a mentor, industry connector, and advocate for aspiring talent — and as the manager of working entertainment professionals including comedian and actor Geno Bisconte — she has become a sought-after voice on the intersection of talent development, personal branding, and career strategy in entertainment.

"Twenty years in, I am more energized than I was on day one," Kaback reflected. "Because the industry keeps changing, and the talent keeps getting better, and every single event we do, I see someone in the room who is about to have the moment that changes everything for them. That is why we do this."
