

Mother's Day Gifts Moms will Actually Use

SYDNEY, AUSTRALIA, May 3, 2026
/EINPresswire.com/ -- Mother's Day gifts are easy to buy, but not always useful.

This year, skip the one-time gestures and choose her everyday comfort.

As part of "Choose You Too", Momcozy highlights a range of wearable and hands-free solutions developed for daily use. These include:

1. The Air 1 Ultra-Slim Breast Pump, designed with a low-profile form factor to enable discreet use in a variety of settings
2. The M5 Smart Hands-Free Breast Pump, created to support flexibility during multitasking

Motherhood doesn't slow down. It stacks - work, caregiving, and everything in between all happen at once. So the most meaningful gifts aren't the ones that simply look thoughtful. They're the ones that make daily life easier. That's the shift behind Momcozy's "Choose You Too" campaign - focusing on real support, not just one-day celebration. This Mother's Day, choose something she'll reach for again tomorrow, and the day after.

mothers throughout the year.

Afterall, motherhood today often involves managing multiple responsibilities at once. The focus is shifting toward solutions that can be used consistently, rather than items intended for one-time occasions.”

The “Choose You Too” campaign will be rolled out across digital platforms in the lead-up to Mother’s Day, with an emphasis on accessibility and everyday usability.
