Mora Capital Management Switzerland, which operated under the Boreal Capital Management brand until March, further consolidates its position in Switzerland and strengthens its standing as a Swiss portfolio management firm serving private clients through a boutique, relationship-driven model. Its new name, adopted this spring and incorporating the surname of the founding family of its parent company, MoraBanc Group, reinforces this positioning and supports its future growth ambitions.

"We are very satisfied with our performance in 2025, which has enabled us to increase our contribution to MoraBanc Group. However, this year's strong results should not be seen in isolation; they are the outcome of a clearly defined and distinctive strategy in private banking which I believe will enable us to continue strengthening our position in a key market such as Switzerland," said Jaime Moreno, CEO of Mora Capital Management Switzerland.

The strong performance of Mora Capital Management Switzerland and other international subsidiaries was also reflected in the consolidated results of MoraBanc Group, which reached a record in 2025 with €20.141 billion in assets under management.

With a net profit of €62.5 million, the group marked its tenth consecutive year of growth.

International subsidiaries, including Mora Capital Switzerland, posted a profit of €8.1 million, representing a 60% year-on-year increase.
