

Axios Security Group Announces 4-Day Executive Protection Certified Training Program in Fayetteville, NC

Axios Security Group launches Executive Protection Training Program in Fayetteville, NC, delivering 4-day, 40-hour hands-on security and protection training.

FAYETTEVILLE, NC, UNITED STATES, May 5, 2026 /EINPresswire.com/ -- Axios Security Group has announced its upcoming Executive Protection Certified Training Program, a comprehensive 4-day, 40-hour course designed to provide real-world, hands-on training for both aspiring and experienced protection professionals.

The training will take place May 14–May 17 at 2415 Gary Street, Fayetteville, North Carolina, with daily instruction running from 9:00 AM to 7:00 PM.

This immersive program is structured to deliver practical instruction across the core disciplines of executive protection, including protectee movement, mission planning, route selection, site surveys, defensive tactics, emergency medical response, and scenario-based exercises designed to simulate real-world operations.

This program is designed to prepare professionals for real-world executive protection operations, building discipline, awareness, and the ability to perform when it matters most — Jereme Dozier, CEO, Axios Security Group

Participants will engage in a structured training environment that emphasizes both foundational skills and advanced applications of personal protection operations. The course is designed to prepare individuals for executive protection roles across corporate, private, and high-risk environments, while also enhancing the capabilities of those currently working in the field.

Axios Security Group continues to expand its training initiatives as part of its broader mission to raise standards across the security industry through disciplined instruction and practical application.

In support of community safety, discounted rates are available for church security teams and faith-based organizations. Due to the hands-on nature of the training, space is limited, and early registration is strongly encouraged. Interested participants should contact the event organizer directly for group pricing, rates, and payment arrangements.
