

90210 Enterprise Champions Authentic Connection at Los Angeles Leadership Week Partnership Panel

90210 Enterprise champions authentic connection at LA Leadership Week, sharing "family secrets" of legacy and heart-centered leadership with the world.

LOS ANGELES, CA, UNITED STATES, May 5, 2026 /EINPresswire.com/ -- In a powerful display of institutional trust and collaborative vision, 90210 Enterprise hosted a landmark session during the prestigious Los Angeles Leadership Week. The panel, titled "How to Create Sustainable Authentic Business Relationships," marked a historic moment as the only session of the week where a partner of the Los Angeles Tribune was granted a dedicated, exclusive platform.

Los Angeles Leadership Week stands as a monumental summit in the heart of the city, featuring a staggering roster of more than 200 world-class speakers and global visionaries. 90210 Enterprise shared this elite stage with legendary voices including Neale Donald Walsch, Forbes Riley, Sonia Choquette, Dr. John Demartini, Sharon Lechter, Brian Tracy, and Mark Victor Hansen. The event brought together heavyweights like Kevin Harrington, Dame Doria Cordova, Ken Honda, Dan Kennedy, and Joe Vitale, creating a massive convergence of leadership excellence that set the backdrop for 90210's intimate and impactful discussion.

This was no ordinary corporate presentation. Rather than a sales-driven presentation, the event unfolded as a "family sharing secrets"—a transparent, general discussion where the individual leaders of the 90210 Universe shared of themselves and the profound "why" behind their mission.

A Synergy Beyond the Stage

The session was anchored by the visible, deep-rooted connection between the leadership team. Moderated by Founder and CEO Ashkan Tabibnia, the panel radiated a high-energy synergy that bridged the gap between the stage and the audience. This alliance, born from the long-standing friendship between Tabibnia and Moe Rock, CEO of the Los Angeles Tribune, set the tone for a dialogue centered on the six pillars of the CORE leadership: Integrity, Authenticity, Service, Relationships, Resilience, and Presence.

A Cohesive Narrative of Legacy and Heart

The energy in the room was electric, defined by a reciprocal flow between the leaders and the attendees. The panel frequently paused to acknowledge the audience, treating them as an extension of the 90210 family. This engagement illustrated the organization's fundamental belief that business is, first and foremost, a human endeavor.

BE YOU. I really mean that and if you are at networking events follow your internal guide, your IGS and have real conversation. There is someone out there for you; there is someone for everyone.”

mentors: "Once you have learned to doubt your own doubts, you will be the most successful, authentic person that you can be."

The conversation then shifted to the internal architecture of success. Lesley Nase, Chief Relationship Officer, highlighted that the power to build a legacy begins within. "The future is Now," Nase stated. "If I want to manifest a successful business, then I am that business. It is not outside of me." She noted that the bridge to these high-level connections is built on a simple, often overlooked skill: "The most important thing I do is listen." Building on this theme of long-term vision, Dr. Natalie Forest, President and VP of Media, emphasized the group's collective commitment to the future. "We are focused on legacy; we are not just short-term, we are long-term," she shared, reinforcing that the 90210 Universe is designed to endure.

The Final Charge: Protecting the Legacy

As the session drew to a close, the obvious affection and mutual respect between the leaders served as a living example of the "90210 way." Ashkan Tabibnia offered a final, powerful charge to the entrepreneurs in the room, reminding them that their greatest asset is their integrity. "For entrepreneurs, do not give up... at the end of the day, make sure that your time, your expertise, and your way of life is not compromised," Tabibnia concluded. "There is nothing as valuable as what is your legacy."
