NEW YORK, NY, UNITED STATES, May 6, 2026 /EINPresswire.com/ -- Thomas J. Henry was among the sponsors of another major night of boxing in Las Vegas as fans packed T-Mobile Arena for a high-profile Cinco de Mayo weekend showdown headlined by David Benavidez and Gilberto “Zurdo” Ramirez. The event delivered the kind of high-stakes action and championship atmosphere that has made boxing one of the most compelling spectacles in sports.

In the evening’s headline bout, Benavidez defeated Ramirez by sixth-round knockout to become the unified WBA and WBO cruiserweight world champion. According to Premier Boxing Champions, Benavidez dropped Ramirez twice before the fight was stopped at 2:59 of the sixth round, capping one of the weekend’s biggest performances.

For Thomas J. Henry, the sponsorship reflected a natural connection to a sport built on resilience, discipline, preparation and performance under pressure. Those same qualities have long been associated with his career and public profile, making boxing a credible and powerful fit for his brand. “Boxing represents grit, focus and the ability to rise to the occasion when the
