Full Product Range — Every Patch Type, Every Style

The Eagle Patches manufactures nine distinct patch types to meet the needs of virtually any project or industry:

Custom Embroidered Patches — The classic choice for uniforms, workwear, and brand identity. Detailed thread work on quality twill backing, available in any shape, size, and colour combination.

Custom Chenille Patches — Soft, textured, and nostalgic. Popular for varsity jackets, school spirit wear, team uniforms, and fashion collections seeking that iconic letterman look.

Custom Leather Patches — Rugged and premium. Available in debossed, embossed, and laser-etched finishes, ideal for hats, bags, jackets, and lifestyle brands with a heritage aesthetic.

Custom PVC Patches — Flexible, weather-resistant, and full-colour. Favoured by tactical teams, outdoor gear brands, and military and law enforcement units that need patches built for demanding environments.

Custom Sublimated Patches — Full-colour, photo-quality printing on fabric. The best choice for gradient designs, detailed artwork, and photographic imagery that standard embroidery cannot achieve.

Custom Woven Patches — Tighter thread weave for sharper detail. Ideal for fine text, small logos, and intricate artwork where precision matters most.

Custom 3D Embroidery Patches — Raised, dimensional stitching that adds depth and texture to logos and lettering. Increasingly popular for streetwear brands, sports teams, and premium uniform programmes.

Custom Applique Patches — Layered fabric construction for bold, lightweight designs. A reliable choice for uniforms, dance costumes, and sports jerseys where bulk needs to stay low but visual impact must stay high.

Custom Sequin Patches — Sparkling, reversible, and impossible to ignore. Designed for fashion collections, performance costumes, event merchandise, and anyone who believes subtle is overrated.

Simple Three-Step Ordering Process:

The Eagle Patches has designed its ordering process to be as straightforward as possible for first-time and repeat customers alike.

Step one is design submission. Customers upload a sketch, logo, or design concept — even a rough idea or a napkin drawing — and the in-house design team converts it into a production-ready artwork file at no additional charge.

Step two is digital proof approval. Before any patch goes into production, customers receive a detailed digital mockup showing thread colours, layout, sizing, and finish options. Revisions are welcome until the customer is fully satisfied.

Step three is production and delivery. Once the proof is approved, patches are manufactured and shipped directly to the customer. Standard orders are fulfilled within 7 to 10 business days after proof approval, with express production available for time-sensitive projects.

Quality Guarantee and Customer Commitment:

Every order placed with The Eagle Patches is backed by a 100 percent quality guarantee. If a product does not meet the approved proof specifications, The Eagle Patches will replace or refund the order. This commitment to quality has driven the company's growth to over 12,000 customer reviews across its platforms and established its reputation among repeat clients in the sports, military, corporate, and fashion sectors.

enforcement and military units, schools and universities, motorcycle and car clubs, corporate uniform and branding programmes, fashion labels and streetwear brands, and event organisers across all three markets.
