

HPS Flooring Announces Advanced Food and Beverage Flooring Solutions for NJ Industrial Facilities

HPS Flooring Announces Advanced Food and Beverage Flooring

GREEN BROOK, NJ, UNITED STATES, May 6, 2026 /EINPresswire.com/ -- HPS Flooring, a leader in industrial coating applications since 1988, is proud to highlight its specialized line of food and beverage flooring systems designed to meet the rigorous demands of New Jersey's processing and hospitality sectors. Engineered for full USDA and FDA compliance, these systems provide a critical foundation for safety and hygiene in high-pressure environments.

As regulatory scrutiny increases, industrial facilities and commercial kitchens face the dual challenge of maintaining sanitary standards while ensuring operational durability. HPS Flooring addresses these needs with seamless, non-porous surfaces that eliminate the cracks and crevices where bacteria and pests often lurk.

*Engineered for Extreme Conditions

The food and beverage flooring systems offered by HPS are specifically built to withstand:

-Thermal Shock: Resistant to rapid temperature shifts common in processing and wash-down cycles.

-Chemical Resistance: Durable against constant exposure to organic acids, fats, and aggressive cleaning agents.

-Slip Resistance: Textured finishes designed to protect staff in high-moisture environments.

*Minimizing Operational Downtime
Understanding the time-sensitive nature of the food industry, HPS Flooring works closely with facility managers to plan installations around active production schedules. By delivering high-performance coatings with efficient turnarounds, the company ensures that NJ businesses can upgrade their infrastructure without significant service interruptions.
