

PATRIOT TACTICAL ANNOUNCES STRATEGIC PARTNERSHIP W/ MEMPHIS IN MAY, HONORING SERVICE, COMMUNITY, AND AMERICAN TRADITION

Patriot Tactical and Bill Goldberg unite with Memphis in May to honor veterans, inspire families, and build a lasting impact beyond the event.

MEMPHIS, TN, UNITED STATES, May 6, 2026 /EINPresswire.com/ -- Patriot Tactical announced its participation in the 2026 World Championship Barbecue Cooking Contest at Memphis in May, where the company will take part in community engagement initiatives recognizing veterans, active duty military, first responders, and their families during one of the country's most recognized barbecue events.

The event will feature an appearance by Bill Goldberg, who is scheduled to meet with attendees and participate in activities throughout the event weekend. Memphis in May annually brings together competitors, families, and visitors from across the United States to celebrate food, tradition, and community.

"This country was built by people who work hard, support one another, and take pride in serving their communities," said Goldberg. "Supporting veterans, active duty military, first responders, and the families behind them is something that matters to everyone at Patriot Tactical."

HONORING SERVICE AND COMMUNITY

Patriot Tactical stated that its participation in Memphis in May reflects the company's continued commitment to supporting:

- Active duty military personnel
- Veterans and first responders
- Families who serve and sacrifice
- Youth mentorship and community engagement initiatives

According to the company, events such as Memphis in May provide opportunities to connect directly with individuals and families who value community involvement, service, and tradition.

"If we can spend time with veterans, families, and members of the community while supporting an event with such a strong history, then that's time well spent," Goldberg added. "These events are about bringing people together and showing appreciation for the people who serve others every day."
