BANGKOK, SILOM, THAILAND, May 11, 2026 /EINPresswire.com/ -- R3 Life Wellness Center Wins Merz’s “The Shining Partner Award for Ulthera Transducer 2025” for the Second Consecutive Year

Recognized for Outstanding Client Results, Word-of-Mouth Referrals, and Strong Ultherapy Reviews

R3 Life Wellness Center has once again earned industry recognition at the “Thank You, Very Merz Gala”, hosted by Merz Aesthetics to honor leading medical partners and top aesthetic clinics in Thailand.

This year, R3 Life received “The Shining Partner Award for Ulthera Transducer 2025”, marking its second consecutive win following the same recognition in 2024.

During the event, Dr. Thanyalak Gaeosuksai represented R3 Life Wellness Center on stage to accept the award, alongside Merz executives and distinguished professionals in aesthetic medicine and anti-aging care.

A Recognized Destination for Ultherapy in Bangkok

As demand for non-surgical lifting treatments in Bangkok continues to grow, Ultherapy has become one of the most sought-after technologies among individuals looking for natural-looking results without downtime.

R3 Life Wellness Center has steadily gained recognition as a trusted provider in this space, attracting both Thai and international clients who value physician-led treatment planning, consistent outcomes, and a personalized approach.

This growing reputation is reflected not only in patient feedback, but also in continued recognition from global aesthetic leaders such as Merz Aesthetics.

An Award That Reflects Real Results — Not Just Marketing

The Shining Partner Award for Ulthera Transducer 2025 is not solely based on treatment volume. More importantly, it reflects the trust and confidence that patients place in the clinic's treatment outcomes and overall experience.

Over the past year, Ulthera treatments at R3 Life Wellness Center have received strong responses from both local and international patients—particularly those seeking a non-surgical facelift in Thailand with natural-looking lifting and tightening results.

This recognition is supported by:

- Strong word-of-mouth referrals from real patients
- A growing number of positive Ultherapy reviews across online platforms
- Visible improvements in facial contour, skin firmness, and overall appearance

Patients are not only satisfied with their results but are also actively recommending the treatment to others.

Clinical excellence isn't claimed, it's recognized.
