

China Airlines Partners with JetBlue on Reward Tickets Offering Greater Flexibility for Travel Across the Americas

Introduces reciprocal mileage redemption, extending Dynasty Flyer members' access across JetBlue's network of more than 100 destinations

LOS ANGELES, CA, UNITED STATES, May 8, 2026 /EINPresswire.com/ -- China Airlines, a Taiwan-based carrier, has partnered with the United States carrier, JetBlue, to launch a mutual redemption program for reward tickets. Dynasty Flyer members can now use their miles to redeem JetBlue tickets to explore American cities further inland via key gateways such as New York, Los Angeles, and San Francisco. JetBlue TrueBlue® members can, in turn, use their points to redeem China Airlines tickets and experience the trans-continental flying services offered by China Airlines' wide-body passenger fleet.

JetBlue is New York's Hometown Airline® and a leading carrier in Boston, Fort Lauderdale-Hollywood, Los Angeles, Orlando, and San Juan. JetBlue carries customers to more than 100 destinations throughout the United States, Latin America, the Caribbean, Canada, and Europe. This partnership update is also the first time that JetBlue is offering reward ticket services in partnership with a Taiwanese carrier.

Dynasty Flyer members can now make reservations and use their miles to redeem tickets through customer service centers. In Economy Class, for example, a domestic U.S. round-trip is 35,000 miles, a round-trip from the U.S. to Central America is 40,000 miles, a round-trip to South America is 50,000 miles, and a round-trip from the U.S. to Europe is 70,000 miles. These make Dynasty Flyer miles the most flexible option for onward travel.

China Airlines has been operating in the North American market for more than half a century. The carrier operates non-stop flights from seven cities, including New York, Los Angeles, Ontario, San Francisco, Seattle, Phoenix, and Vancouver, with 40 services a week. The existing airline partnership offering connecting services to more than a hundred inland cities in America is now joined by the JetBlue reward ticket service. Travelers now have even more options for redeeming tickets for their dream tour of the Americas.
