The evening will showcase the brand's "Art of Living" philosophy through curated culinary offerings, live entertainment, and immersive experiences designed to highlight the community's design, amenities, and approach to care.

The Gallery at Fort Collins represents a new chapter in senior living, where hospitality, care, and culture come together.”

Phill Barklow, President, Experience Senior Living

Now open, The Gallery at Fort Collins welcomes visitors to discover its hospitality-driven, luxury approach to senior living and experience a new standard of care in Northern Colorado.

The grand opening event invites guests to experience “The Art of Living”—the signature philosophy of The Gallery brand—through an evening of curated culinary offerings, live entertainment, and community engagement. Attendees will enjoy live music performed by the Fort Collins Symphony, with additional performances by Colorado favorites Dave Beegle and Matt Skinner Band, alongside a showcase of local artists and curated artwork. The evening will also feature chef-crafted cuisine including sushi and signature cocktails, guided tours of the community's residences and amenities, a photo booth experience, and featured speakers.

Community leaders, including representatives from the Fort Collins Chamber of Commerce, Colorado State University Alumni Association, and local government officials are expected to attend.

The Gallery at Fort Collins introduces a luxury senior living experience to the region, offering Independent Living, Assisted Living, and Memory Care within one community. The four-story, 144-residence property includes studio, one-bedroom, and two-bedroom floor plans designed to support a range of lifestyle and care needs.

"The Gallery at Fort Collins represents a new chapter in senior living, where hospitality, care, and culture come together," said Phill Barklow, President, Experience Senior Living. "We've designed this community as a place where residents can truly thrive, with meaningful connection, elevated dining, and personalized care."

The community is the only senior living offering in Fort Collins providing 24/7 nursing care. Residents also have access to chef-led dining, including a high-end restaurant, along with casual dining options and gathering spaces including a pub, game room, and sky lounge.

Additional amenities include a two-story grand hall, art studios, a theater, salon and a landscaped courtyard designed to foster connection and creativity.

A cornerstone of The Gallery's programming is its partnership with the Colorado State University Alumni Association. Through this collaboration, residents gain access to the Osher Lifelong Learning Institute (OLLI), which provides over 150 courses, lectures, and travel opportunities tailored for active adults.

Located near Highway 287 and Horsetooth Road, The Gallery at Fort Collins offers convenient access to I-25 while placing residents close to the area's cultural, dining, and outdoor destinations, with views of the Rocky Mountains.
