UK's leading Muslim charity opens Qurbani 2026 donations from £25, aiming to reach more than 3 Million people across 21 countries this Eid al-Adha 2026.

BRENTFORD, ENGLAND, UNITED KINGDOM, May 10, 2026 /EINPresswire.com/ -- As Eid al-Adha 2026 draws near, Al Mustafa Welfare Trust, one of the UK's most trusted Muslim charities with over 40 years of humanitarian service, has officially opened its Qurbani 2026 campaign, calling on British Muslims and donors worldwide to fulfil their sacred obligation while delivering life-changing nourishment to more than 3 Million vulnerable people. With Qurbani donation in the UK starting from just £25, this year's campaign represents both a profound act of worship and a powerful statement of global solidarity.

Qurbani, also known as Udhiyah, is the annual sacrifice of a goat, sheep, cow, or camel performed on the days of Eid al-Adha, commemorating the unwavering devotion of Prophet Ibrahim (AS). According to Islamic tradition, when Prophet Ibrahim (AS) submitted to Allah's command to sacrifice his son Ismail (AS), Allah (SWT) intervened at the last moment and replaced the sacrifice with a ram. In following this tradition today, Muslims across the world reaffirm their submission to Allah and their commitment to sharing blessings with those in need.

Qurbani is a compulsory act of worship for every sane, adult Muslim who possesses wealth at or above the Nisab threshold. In the United Kingdom, where home slaughter is prohibited by law, donating through a trusted charity is the most practical, compliant, and spiritually rewarding way to fulfil this obligation. For millions of families in conflict zones and extreme poverty, however, the importance of Qurbani goes far beyond ritual. For many, the meat they receive from your Qurbani donation is the only fresh meat they will eat all year.

Founded in 1983 and registered as a UK charity in 2007, Al Mustafa Welfare Trust has spent over four decades transforming lives through medical care, education, water wells, orphan sponsorship, emergency relief, and Qurbani distributions. During Eid al-Adha 2025, the charity successfully delivered Qurbani meat to 3.1 million people across 21 countries, one of the largest Qurbani programmes run by any UK Muslim charity.

This Eid al-Adha 2026, Al Mustafa Welfare Trust is building on that legacy with an ambitious target of reaching more than 3.2 million people across 21 countries spanning Asia, Africa, and the Middle East, including communities in Gaza, Yemen, Sudan, Syria, Pakistan, Bangladesh, Somalia, and beyond. Every sacrifice is performed by qualified personnel in full accordance with Sharia, and fresh meat is distributed directly to the most vulnerable families, widows, orphans, the elderly, and those enduring extreme poverty.

The charity is inviting donors to give a second, Prophetic Qurbani, reviving the beautiful Sunnah of the Prophet Muhammad (PBUH), who would perform two Qurbanis every Eid: one for himself and one on behalf of those from his Ummah who could not afford to do so.
