

Chef Johnny Scott Expands The Mission Kitchen at Plaza De Sueños

The Mission Kitchen and Plaza De Sueños partner with Café86SA, Amira Abdelkader, and Jamilina Wellness for Aug. 22 wellness event.

SAN ANTONIO, TX, UNITED STATES, May 15, 2026 /EINPresswire.com/ -- Chef Johnny Scott, acclaimed chef, entrepreneur, and author, is redefining what it means to build community through cuisine. As the founder of The Mission Kitchen BBQ & Catering Services and Head Chef managing the event hall at Plaza De Sueños, Chef Scott continues to grow a brand rooted in excellence, resilience, and the belief that food has the power to transform lives.

The Mission Kitchen — “Eliminating Excuses”

Built on the motto “Eliminating Excuses,” The Mission Kitchen Catering Services delivers extraordinary culinary experiences for events of every scale. Known for elevated Southern classics infused with globally inspired flavors, The Mission Kitchen has served clients nationwide — from corporate gatherings and nonprofit galas to milestone celebrations and private events.

Every menu is crafted with precision, passion, and a distinctly Carolina soul. Chef Scott’s culinary philosophy blends heritage tradition with bold innovation, ensuring each event leaves a lasting

Plaza De Sueños — Where Dreams Gather

Plaza De Sueños, meaning “The House of Dreams,” is a premier event destination where culinary artistry, culture, and community converge. Under Chef Scott’s leadership, The Mission Kitchen proudly manages the venue’s culinary operations, positioning it as a standout location for unforgettable gatherings.

By combining exceptional food with an inspiring atmosphere, Plaza De Sueños offers clients a seamless fusion of hospitality and excellence — a space designed to gather, celebrate, and create lasting memories.

As part of its continued commitment to community engagement, Plaza De Sueños will host the upcoming Café86SA Wellness Festival on August 22, 2026. The event is a Café86SA community wellness initiative hosted by Amira Abdelkader and Jamilina Wellness, bringing together professionals in mental health, mindfulness, nutrition, movement, and preventative wellness for a day centered around healing, education, and community connection.

“Chef Johnny Scott and Plaza De Sueños have been incredible partners in helping bring this vision to life,” said Stephen Paprocki, founder of Café86SA. “By opening their space for the Café86SA Wellness Festival, they’re helping create a place where the community can come together to focus on mental health, prevention, healing, and connection. Amira Abdelkader and Jamilina Wellness are leading the event experience and helping create an environment centered around education, empowerment, and holistic wellbeing.”

The Wellness Festival will feature speakers, wellness experiences, healthy cooking demonstrations, mindfulness practices, and community-centered programming focused on lifestyle optimization and holistic wellbeing.

A Journey Defined by Purpose

Born and raised in the South Carolina Lowcountry, Chef Scott developed a deep love for cooking rooted in family heritage and the rich culinary traditions of the Carolinas.

After navigating a period of profound adversity, he turned to the kitchen as a place of healing and reinvention. That pivotal moment became the foundation for everything he has built since.

A graduate of The Culinary Institute of Savannah, Chef Scott refined his craft in professional kitchens across the country before channeling his expertise into entrepreneurship and community impact.

Today, he serves as a lead chef instructor for service members, veterans, and wounded warriors — using culinary arts as a vehicle for healing, empowerment, and second chances.
