Christ's Mission Online is forming a 501(c)(3) nonprofit providing free websites and web hosting to Christian churches in Africa that have no digital presence.

LINCOLN, NE, UNITED STATES, May 13, 2026 /EINPresswire.com/ -- Christ's Mission Online is forming a nonprofit organization stepping into the digital mission field with a goal to help African churches in poverty-stricken areas carry the message of Jesus Christ: to build and host professional websites for Christian churches across Africa that have no online presence — with no cost to the church. Christ's Mission Online, a forming 501(c)(3) nonprofit based in Lincoln, Nebraska, officially launched its crowdfunding campaign this week on GoFundMe with a $30,000 fundraising goal aimed at making free church websites in Africa a reality for hundreds of congregations that cannot afford digital access.

Go into all the world and preach the gospel to every creature.”

Mark 16:15

Rod Atwood, a Christian, is the founder and CEO of Websnoogie, LLC, an Omaha, Nebraska-based web design and web hosting company that has served dozens of organizations across the United States for over a decade.

God has directed that experience into something far greater than commerce. Christ's Mission Online represents the formalization of that calling as a Christian nonprofit organization built entirely around serving African churches.

Keeping with scripture to share the message of Jesus Christ, as it is written, "Go into all the world and preach the gospel to every creature." (Mark 16:15), this mission exists to support churches in Africa that have no voice online because they simply cannot afford one. In many of these

Every dollar raised goes directly toward building websites, funding domain registrations, and sustaining the hosting infrastructure that will keep these churches visible to the world indefinitely. This is digital evangelism in its purest form — powered entirely by the generosity of believers who understand that the Great Commission is not bound by geography or bandwidth.

If giving financially is not possible at this time, that is completely fine. Rod Atwood shares, "If you feel led, please pray for this mission and share the following link with friends, family, or your church — because even a $5 donation will perform God's mission and help put another African church on the map for Jesus Christ."
