2026 TITAN Property Awards: Season 1 Full Winners Announced

Rather than focusing solely on scale or complexity, this year's winning entries demonstrate a shift toward design that prioritizes clarity of purpose, user experience, and long-term environmental consideration. Across residential, commercial, hospitality, and mixed-use spaces, these winners showcase how design continues to redefine the role of property in everyday life.

The winners of this season represent a level of thinking and execution that sets them apart globally, defining what property design should aspire to moving forward.”

Thomas Brandt, spokesperson of IAA

Highest Honors: Category Winners of the Year
Among this year's winners, the highest-scoring entries from over 30 countries have been recognized as the Category Winners of the Year, representing the strongest examples of design execution and innovation across key disciplines, including architecture, interior design, landscape, lighting, and conceptual design. These winners are:
