One of their clients has shared, "Being an out-of-town investor, we felt confident using Nigel because of how responsive and professional the team was. We needed a roof repair done and the process was seamless. Sent Nigel a picture of the damage, he provided a rough estimate based on the picture and had someone go in to fix it the very next day. When the bill came, it was exactly what he had said it would cost. Very pleased with their service. I would definitely recommend them."
