

Carrera Por La Paz, (Race For Peace) Returns to Little Village on May 30, 2026

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Community Event Unites Residents, Sponsors, and Local Organizations in Support of Peace and Opportunity

CHICAGO, IL, UNITED STATES, May 26, 2026 /EINPresswire.com/ -- The Little Village community will once again come together for the annual Carrera

Por La Paz, (Race For Peace) on Saturday, May 30, 2026, bringing together residents, runners, families, community organizations, and local businesses in a powerful movement dedicated to peace, opportunity, and neighborhood investment.

Organized by the Little Village Rotary Club, Carrera Por La Paz, (Race For Peace) has become more than a 5K run/walk — it is a growing community tradition focused on reducing violence by supporting youth programs, mentorship initiatives, educational opportunities, and local outreach efforts throughout Chicago neighborhoods.

This year's event has generated tremendous momentum. The 2026 event is made possible through the generous support of sponsors and donors committed to strengthening the Little Village community and investing in long-term solutions for peace and opportunity.

"At Sigma, we are proud to support Carrera for Paz each year as a meaningful way to give back. Through La Chona, we remain committed to promoting unity, creating positive impact, and investing in the future of our youth.", say Luis Padilla, Director of Sales.,

Sponsors include:

LA CHONA

Illinois Hispanic Chamber of Commerce

Little Village Chamber of Commerce

Wintrust Bank – Little Village
